

Navy EO Accepting Service Award Nominations

The Navy Equal Opportunity (EO) Office is accepting nominations for the Roy Wilkins Renowned Service Award until May 18.

This annual award is given to a military member or Department of Defense civilian employee who has made a distinguished and a significant contribution to the country in the area of civil or human rights, race relations, equal opportunity, affirmative action, human resources and/or public service.

All packages should include a black and white or high-resolution digital head and shoulders photograph in a JPEG format (either emailed or sent on diskette or CD); a typewritten, single-spaced narrative describing the nominee's accomplishments that support the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) award criteria; and a typewritten citation summarizing the nominee's accomplishments.

The NAACP will present the award during the Annual Armed Services and Veterans Affairs Awards Dinner scheduled for July 18, in Washington, D.C.

For questions on submitting packages, contact the Navy EO office at 901-874-2507 or DSN 882-2507.
